

I personally object to the Consumer Banking Association's efforts to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The law was created specifically to protect consumers from unwanted solicitations and the CBA member organizations are no exception.

Sincerely,

Laura Henderson